AVAILABLE NOVEMBER 2002:

'Hazel Steps through a Weathered Home' LUNE 004

The new and fourth full length album of published music by In Gowan Ring

A liminal lucubration of specular poetry composed within a euphonious and eclectic arrangement of acoustic, archaic, and homespun instruments.

"The poetic manipulations here reflect upon this life-world as an often traversed habitation. The enigmas of nostalgia, impermanence, and existential transcendence are recurrent.

Musically, the arrangements evince a pensive cyclical polyphony whereby each constituent enfolds within another, insinuating an integral geometric symmetry.

This collection is at once the most simple and the most involved of all my work." -Composer/Conductor B'eirth

Joining the Conductor on these recordings are notable guests:

Annabel Lee (Alraune, Amber Asylum) on violin and viola.
Michael Moynihan (Blood Axis) on bodhran.
Philip & Gayle Neuman (De Orgonographia, O.R.B.) on alto and tenor sackbut.
Margie Wienk (Eyesores, Fern Knight, Ididarod) on violincello.

Other instruments featured include guitar, cittern, and harp which were designed and fabricated by the Conductor

"If psychedelics had been widely available in medieval times one could imagine Gnostics penning tunes such as this, the songs trickling down into the folk tradition and being picked up by a wigged out Cecil Sharp who set about electrifying and distorting them, using traditional instruments in unexpected ways. Captivatingly brilliant." -Ptolemaic Terrascope mp3 available of 'To Thrum a Glassy Stem'
